

Respect, Believe, Achieve

Year 6 Accept and Respect

Respectful Relationships

Websites and Signposting

Show Some Respect Video

Respect for Others—Video

Children's Society—Website—self esteem

What do I already know?

- That the same principle apply to online relationships as to face to face relationships, including the importance of respect for others online including when they are anonymous. (Y3)
- That each persons body belongs to them, and the differences between appropriate and inappropriate or unsafe physical, and other, contact. (Y4)
- How to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know. (Y4)
- How to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about an adult. (Y4)

Key Words

Self - respect	Means feeling good about yourself and making choices that make you feel good and have respect for your mind and body.
Self - esteem	Means you mostly feel good about yourself .
Authority	The power or right to give orders, make decisions, and enforce rules.
Society	People living together in a community.

Key Skills
	Identify – can recognise and talk about ways to be respectful to myself and others. Also, the impact of disrespecting others on their mental health.
	Respect — communicating with people in a positive and respectful way and thinking about how actions affect others.
	Empathy - understand how people feel when they are approached in a certain way.

Key Knowledge
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority (A2) • The importance of self-respect and how this links to their own happiness (A2)

Here's what I will know/be able to do by the end
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I know how to communicate with different people in an appropriate way. 2. I can talk about and show respectful behaviour towards myself and others. 3. I understand the impact of my actions and how disrespecting people can impact their mental health in a negative way. 4. I know what self respect and self esteem is and can identify ways to feel better about myself.