Year 3

Topic: Figurative Drawing

Links to Famous Artist/ Sculptor

Quentin Blake

David Tazzyman

As an Artist, what do I already know from previous learning?

I have practised developing painting skills, working with control and the correct amount of paint.

I have created a self-portrait in the style of Julian Opie by drawing long lines and adding facial features using dots and small.

I have used a sketchbooks to practise and try out ideas and techniques.

Key Vocabulary

illustration

A picture or diagram that makes something clear.

intention

Something that you want and plan to do.

continuous line drawing

A continuous line drawing is one in which a single, unbroken line is used to develop an image.

gesture

A movement of part of the body, especially a hand or the head, to express an idea or meaning.

wash

a layer of colour that is somewhat transparent applied with diluted paint.

	Key Skills
	I can use exaggeration as a tool to help convey the intention of my drawing
	I can successfully draw a figure using the continuous line method.
	I will continue to develop using a sketchbook as a place to record my responses to the world.
	I can create a watercolour wash

Key Knowledge
How illustrators like Quentin Blake and David Tazzyman purposely exaggerate certain characteristics of the body, in order to convey a sense of action or intention when telling a story.

As an Artist, here's what I will have achieved at the end of the topic
I will have practised observational drawing-exploring careful looking, intention, seeing big shapes, drawing with gesture, and quick sketching, I will have taken risks when trying out, investigating and exploring different materials and techniques. I will have used my sketchbook to practice and try out ideas and techniques, record observations and research well-known artists. I will have made careful and considerate judgments about my own and others work and used this evaluation to understand what I need to do to improve my work.
