

ELSA - Emotional Support Assistants

Specialist Teaching Assistants with a background of basic child psychology and experience of working with children.

Can support children with behaviour choices and social skills.

Warm and caring person who wants to help make children feel happy in school.

Can work with children individually or in small groups.

Can support children with emotional issues, self-esteem, bereavements, separation, divorce, friendship issues and anxiety.

Mrs Dalley & Mrs Green

Can support children to manage and cope with their emotions.

Able to support children through life's challenges and help them find the strategies to cope.